PENCILLETES.

Chow Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco Next Friday is St. Valentine's day. Beautiful spring weather yesterday. "Maud Muller" by Miss Genevieve Rogers to-morrow night.

"Maud Muller" on a summer day, "Raked the meadow sweet with hay." The mortality of the city of Nashville, for the month of January, was 71—whites, 43, colored, 28.

The Tennessee Legislature will resume its arduous labors next Tuesday, after a recess of ten days or so.

Ogden Bros., have some elegant imported Valentines, and also their usual large stock of Comic ones.

The total vote cast in the Taxing District of Memphis Thursday in the election of Fire and Police Commissioners was four thousand four hundred and eighty-eight.

Crockett Walden is the name of another crazy man in Cooke county, and he is so badly affected as to be rendered speechless, and has to be constantly guarded.

The law passed by the Legislature abolishing the city of Memphis, as published in the Nashville American, occupies about three columns and a half of solid matter.

The Emerson Minstrels, to be here next week, is the best troupe on the road. The agent has engaged accommodations for twenty-seven people, that being their number.

Shelby county, in which the taxing district of Memphis is located, has now sixty-five deputy sheriffs. It seems that such an army of officials ought to be able to keep things straight there.

A. E. Murphy, who shot himself Friday morning, died at 11 o'clock that night. An inquest was held yesterday and the remains were taken to Sevier county for burial.

Messrs. Michaels, Duncombe & Co. have had erected a large and attractive sign over their saddle and harness house in the Sanford block yesterday. It was executed by Lancaster, the Market Square painter.

Rev. R. H. Hook, assisted by Rev. J. W. Ratkin, has been engaged about three weeks in a revival meeting at St. Paul's Church, Hamblen county, which resulted in 14 conversions and some additions to the church.

The Criminal Court at Memphis, a few days ago, sentenced a woman to eight years in the penitentiary for enticing a fourteen-year-old girl, a yellow fever orphan, to a house of ill-fame. The punishment was by no means too severe.

Mr. John Scherf received a note yesterday from the manager of Miss Genevieve Rogers' Company, offering a special carriage to meet Miss Rogers at the train to-night, and for him to prepare accommodations for her and some of the principal people at his popular stopping place, the Lamar House.

Mr. O. J. Peed, owner of the property which was occupied by the late A. E. Murphy, who suicided Friday, wishes an impression which has gone out about any difficulty between him and Mr. Murphy corrected. He states that they had no trouble or words about the rent of the property, it all being understood.

H. B. Links, No. 309 Walnut street, Philadelphia, writes to Col. J. B. Kilbreth, Commissioner of the Bureau of Agriculture, Statistics and Mines, that there is a great deal of talk in Pennsylvania about a colony location in Tennessee. He applies for information regarding the State with a view to bringing a colony here.

Personal.

Mr. Ernest Stanley, Director of the famous and renowned Billy Emerson's Minstrels, was in the city yesterday, arranging for the appearance of this star minstrel troupe at St. Paul's Opera House, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week.

Mr. R. P. Spence and family, who recently came here from Dandridge, left for Athens yesterday, where he has opened a drug store.

Capt. Jno. F. Davis, agent for the penitentiary lessees, was in the city yesterday, and went out to Rogersville last night after some convicts recently sentenced.

Mr. Lloyd Branson, the distinguished young artist of our city, is located in Atlanta for a few months.

The Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, New York, is a big House, and it takes a great many people to fill it. In order to do the latter, and to please everybody, the Hotel is now kept on upwards per day. An elegant Restaurant at moderate prices, is conducted by the Hotel.

CHAMPION MONITOR Coal Stove takes the place of all coal stoves yet made.

Died.

In Grainger county Feb. 6th, 1879, Newton L. Howell, in the 44th year of his age, he being the eldest son of John A. and Elizabeth Howell, whose death notices appeared in this paper last week.

This makes the third member of the family that has died in the last two weeks, and the many friends of M. L. Howell take this means of expressing their heart-felt sympathy for him and the other members of the family in their bereavement.

The New Saddle and Harness Manufactory.

In another column appears the advertisement of Michaels, Duncombe & Co., the new saddle, harness and collar manufacturing establishment, and we bespeak for them a liberal patronage. The young men running the establishment are enterprising, and are determined to push the business to success. In the few weeks they have carried on the business, their trade has been constantly and rapidly increasing, and an addition had to be built to the rear of their store building to give them more manufacturing room. They have about sixteen hands employed manufacturing saddles, and collars, and one man is out on the road now traveling in the interest of the house, and the junior member of the firm will leave on a business trip shortly. Mr. Michaels thoroughly understands the business of collar-making, and started the first factory of the kind in Knoxville, under the name of W. O. White & Co. He was afterwards a member of the firm of Oates, White & Co. His collars have given entire satisfaction, and we learn that horses have actually been cured while wearing collars of his make. They propose to keep a full stock of everything in their line, wholesale and retail, and will be undersold by any one, and we doubt not they will give satisfaction to all who may favor them with a share of their patronage.

The St. John's Church Entertainment. The theatricals at the St. John's Chapel last night were an improvement if possible, on the night before, and the performers were favored with an audience more in proportion to their excellence.

The exercises were opened a few minutes after 8 o'clock, with a recitation by Miss Margie McGhee, who held the audience breathless with her vividly natural delivery.

Miss Lawson McGhee, followed with her usual elegance and taste. The curtain then rose and the "Spirit of Seventy-Six," dawned upon us. The honest and unwearying assessor Mrs. Badger, who did not seem averse to becoming collector as well, was unexceptionally well rendered by Miss Carrie Bell.

The fascinating Miss Victorine Wigfall became only the more charming in the person of Miss Rosa Staub. Her effect on Mr. Carberry was very noticeable. Miss Katie Humes, in her roles of office, makes a handsome and impressive Judge, and, the "strong-mindedness" of her sex cropped out very naturally in her opposition to Mr. Wigfall's impertinence. Miss Wolvenine Griffin was a success throughout, makes a good stump-speecheer, and, though unfortunately, certainly deserves commendation for her energy in matters of sentiment and honor, and, at the end, for her patriotic resignation. We need hardly say that she could not have been better represented than by Mrs. French. Mr. Wigfall makes a very domestic husband, and we cheerfully recommended him. Mr. Carberry, though a bit at first, did pretty well toward the end, after the Judge's condemnation of her daughter to him. In short, the whole evening's entertainment was a grand success.

The New Orleans Store.

To the People of Knoxville: The very flattering comments of the press and our customers and the regret expressed because we are giving up our store at this place, call for a word of explanation. We are truly pained to retrace our steps from a city, whose people have exhibited towards us such hospitality and liberality, and where our success has so far exceeded our expectations. Our only reason for this step, is at our firm, consisting of but two members, one of whom is necessarily six months in New York, our time and attention could not be divided, so as to turn two large stores, in the first class manner in which we are accustomed to do business.

Very respectfully,
D. B. LOVEMAN & Co.

Married.

Thursday evening, Feb. 6th, 1879, at the residence of the bride's mother, in North Knoxville, Rev. F. E. Sturgis officiating, Mr. W. S. Bradley, delivery clerk at the Postoffice, and Miss Bettie Baumann.

This was a brilliant and stirring event in the circles of North Knoxville society. A large circle of invited guests were in attendance and the evening was whiled away in a very pleasant manner, with all the accompanying enjoyments incident to such an occasion. We tender to our esteemed young friend and his beautiful and accomplished bride, our hearty congratulations on this important era of their life, and wish them all the happiness and success imaginable through life.

The wedded couple were given a reception last night at the residence of Mr. H. L. Bradley, father of the groom, to which there was a number of invited guests, and which was also a pleasant occasion.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility, and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative power in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering I will send free of charge to all who desire it this receipt with full directions for preparing and using in German, French and English. Sent by mail by address with stamp naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Power Block, Rochester, New York.

Adjournment of the Criminal Court.

Judge Hall held another brief session of the Criminal Court yesterday evening for the final hearing of some civil cases, and after the record is all gotten up, and signed this morning, the court will stand adjourned till court in course. The court has been in continuous session for near five weeks, though, properly speaking, it was only four weeks, all juries, etc., having been discharged last Saturday, the rest of the time having been devoted to winding up the business. This has been a very effective term and resulted in sending fifteen recruits for the penitentiary, more than were ever sent at one term of the court before.

The roll is as follows: Newman Carter, for life for murder; W. Lones, counterfeiting, and Wm. Brown, larceny, five years each; Lucius Weaver, larceny, four years; John Lewis, larceny, three and a half years; Walter Adcock and Henry Mooneyham, counterfeiting, three years each; Jordan Mitchell, attempted rape, two years; Eliza Tipton alias "Trottin' Lize," larceny, one and a half years; and Charles Scott, Wm. Williams, Calloway Kerner, John Mills, Porter Mountcastle and Ben Shields, each one year for larceny. The aggregate term of imprisonment is 33 years, aside from the life sentence. They will be turned over to the lessees on demand.

During the sitting of the court, ye news gatherer has received many favors in the way of assistance in making up reports from day to day from the very efficient clerk of the court, Mr. Geo. L. Maloney, and his tone the less efficient assistant, Mr. W. W. Dunn, and he takes this occasion of acknowledging, and tendering thanks for the same.

The CHARTER OAK can not be excelled.
